

NJOBVU CULTURAL LODGE

- STAY FOR A DAY OR OVERNIGHT VISIT IN A RURAL MALAWIAN VILLAGE
- ENJOY TRADITIONAL DANCES AND DRUMMING PERFORMED BY VILLAGERS
- STROLL THROUGH THE VILLAGE TO MEET THE VILLAGE HEADMAN AND TRADITIONAL HEALER
- TAKE PART IN VILAGE LIFE BY PREPARING MAIZE FLOUR AND COOKING 'NSIMA', A MALAWIAN FAVORITE
- EXPERIENCE AN EVENING IN A TYPICAL MUDBRICK HUT COMPLETE WITH MALAWIAN VILLAGE MEAL
- LOCATED MINUTES FROM MALAWI'S TREASURE, LIWONDE NATIONAL PARK

Njobvu Cultural Village Lodge is run by and employs local villagers and is an important source of revenue for the community. This income reduces the need to poach within Liwonde National Park. Benefiting from park tourism encourages communities to conserve their valuable natural and cultural resources. A percentage of funds are used to support a nursery school and in the future to support village elderly.
